

AIM2 Initial Assessment Process

The AIM2 Initial Assessment model is designed to assist professional judgement on the management, placement and intervention needs of a young man where there are concerns of sexually harmful behaviour. The initial assessment is intended to be undertaken by co-working (at least one worker must be trained) and to be completed within a short timescale.

Assessment Structure

